

645TI/30 Baby™ Lock pink

FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

The 645TI Baby™ Lock is a small padlock in light blue and pink that can be set as a sign of love for the newborn.

Couples who have already hung up a love lock and have now had offspring can also set a sign of love for their child with the cute Baby™ Locks from ABUS. Of course with enough space for a personal engraving. Our recommendation: Especially for young parents, the Baby™ Locks are a nice gift with memory value! Because the high-quality finish of the lock body and shackle ensures that the lock looks attractive even after many years.

Technologies

- Anodized aluminium lock body in light blue and pink
- Back of the lock body is totally empty – enough space for engraving
- 30 mm lock body
- 5 mm hardened steel shackle
- Shackle with NANO PROTECT™ plating for ultimate corrosion resistance
- Individual box packaging (cardboard) in Love Lock Design

Operation and use

- Extension of the love lock tradition: parents can dedicate their newborns own lock and additionally attach this to their existing love lock
- A gift for the birth
- Also ideal to individually secure lockers and wardrobes (e.g. in fitness centres), for cellar sheds, tool boxes, etc.
