

Checklist Security at home

Security Tech Germany

Measurement of the cylinder length

The cylinder length directly depends on the door width plus the fitting thickness. A wide variety of cylinder depths are available for selection. Measuring the two important cylinder dimensions is very easy. Proceed as shown in the figure. Measurements are always taken from the center of the fastening screw for the cylinder. You need to know the distance from the cylinder to the door handle when purchasing a new fitting. It is either 72 mm or 92 mm.

