ONE BIKE HELMET - TWO GENERATIONS

A modern and safe bike helmet that appeals to two generations at once. The Youn-I model has enabled ABUS to bridge the gap between helmets for adults and helmets for young people.

Adults are role models for children and should therefore also wear a bike helmet. This could prevent many of the serious brain injuries caused by cycling accidents. However, women with smaller heads often cannot find a helmet that fits them properly. With a simple but modern look, this bike helmet meets the needs of both young cyclists as well as many women with smaller heads. The Youn-I boasts a simple, urban and fashionable look that appeals to both generations.
