

LIGHTWEIGHT AND SAFE

Secure your higher-value items with confidence using our 96CS TITALIUM™ padlock.

Whether you're safeguarding doors, gates, cabinets, lockers, toolboxes, or basements, this padlock provides excellent protection against theft. Crafted from TITALIUM™ special aluminum, the 96CS is lightweight yet robust. Its Closed Shackle (CS) design adds extra security for the hardened steel shackle, making it significantly more resistant to attempts to break it open, such as with bolt cutters. The reversible key enhances convenience, ensuring that it always fits, regardless of how you insert it.

Technologies

- Solid lock body made from TITALIUM™ aluminum alloy - high security with low weight
- Hardened steel shackle with NANO PROTECT™ plating for extreme corrosion resistance
- High precision reversible keyway with 150 000 key differs
- Automatic locking: Locking without key by pushing the shackle
